Straight Talk,

September 17, 2002

What a fantastic week of camp ministry we had with Randy Carter this summer! Randy was able to completely capture the attention of campers as he shared stories about his experiences in life and the life-changing power of Jesus Christ. In addition to laying out the gospel very clearly, Randy also tackled the issues students face in following God. Randy's "no holds barred" approach to the topic of sexual purity on one of our evenings was appreciated by staff and campers, and it led to some important discussions in the cabins afterwards.

Besides the effective speaking, I was most impressed by Randy's willingness to spend time with campers throughout the day. During our entire summer, I never saw a speaker out there with kids as much as Randy.

Our thanks to Randy for speaking truth in to the lives of campers and for adding so much to our week here at Camp Qwanoes.
